

Parducci, the Man Who Made Detroit Beautiful (and The Players) is a documentary film directed by Jack P. Johnson.

Johnson, and Parducci researcher Jennifer Baross, have traveled coast to coast interviewing architects, curators, conservators, historians, authors and his family, compiling the story of Parducci.

The documentary Film on Corrado Parducci will be shown at
The Players Playhouse, February 13th, 2019 @ 7pm
$20, includes the film, soft drinks, and parking.
A chance to see the interior of an authentic Parducci masterpiece.